

I feel the requirement should be dropped. Morse Code is passé, people now days use phone,digital,packet, satellite, eme, IRLP and Echo Link to do the same thing distance wise as HF. If people want to use the CW bands, then those people should be tested for a CE endorsement. This should not be required for HF PHONE USE. I hope you will do the right thing and drop the code requirement altogether.

Thanks

G. J. Curti Sr